Old Testament Book 4

But this one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 3:13-14).

As Paul the apostle points out living the Christian living the Christian life demands all our energy. We can forget the past and strain for the goal because we know Christ promises eternity with Him at the end of the race. Youths' lets recognize that our revolution has begun. We were all born with a purpose that we must seek to accomplish . If we walk with purpose we are unshakeable. We all encounter difficult situations that causes us at times to part ways with friends and colleagues. We must truly learn to forgive, let go and move on. Strive to be humble and remain true to yourselves .you were born an original, don't die a copy. Exercise patience in your everyday walk. Keep your eyes on the prize. It's a new year! Change gear!

3 BIG LIES ABOUT SEX

Lie #1. Sex is no big deal.

Wrong! Sex is a huge deal. It ties two people together forever (Genesis 2:24), even if they never speak to each other again. You can't escape the memories of sharing the most intimate act of all. That's why God wants us to save sex for the person we commit our lives to—the person we marry.

Lie #2 Sex equals love.

It's true, at least for many, that sex equals an emotional tie of some sort—one that might seem like love. But here's a news flash: many treat sex as more of a physical thing than an emotional one. Sex is meant to be the ultimate expression of the ultimate commitment, marriage. Love comes first, marriage second, sex third.

Lie #3 Having sex is just like any other sin.

God definitely forgives sexual sin the same way he forgives all sin. But the reason the Bible pays close attention to sexual sin is that sex affects people like no other sin does (1 Corinthians 6:18-20). Most sins involve mainly your actions, but premarital sex involves your heart, mind, and body as well. That kind of internal damage is very hard to get

GLOBAL YOUTH DAY & YOUTH WEEK OF PRAYER

Global Youth Day –

March 15 will be celebrated as Global Youths Day. Each of us in our own corner of the world can reach out to those in need and make a difference by being the hands and feet of Jesus. Let's make an impact in our communities through acts of kindness. This year we can do more. We spend most Sabbath studying what it means to be followers of Christ. Its time to take one Sabbath and live out that sermon again. This year we can touch lives and change the world.

Youth Week Of Prayer

Youth week of prayer this year 2014 is March 15-22. The week of prayer reading will focus on the Kingdom of God, both present and future, exploring what it means to be a citizen of the Kingdom of God, even as await its complete fulfillment at the second coming of Jesus.

Prayer is a privilege purchased by the blood of Jesus Christ. Support the youth Week of Prayer.

him You Bear Fruits

The mission of the Harbour View Seventh - day Adventist Youth Society is to focus on the salvation of youth through Jesus Christ, help youth to discover and develop their spiritual gifts and abilities , equip and empower youth for a life of service within God's Church and the community.

Theme Text

Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. (Joshua 1:9)

THOUGHT OF LIFE

Everyone wants to be independent to say “ I did it on my own” But what about the times when you truly need help? There is nothing we can do on our own. GOD makes a promise, Faith believes it, Hope anticipates it, and Patience quietly awaits it. GOD is the one who enables us to do things we do, so call upon him and HE will see you through.
