GOSSIPING AND TAMING THE TONGUE

Look at Numbers 12:3-9. In James 3:1-12, it says the tongue is “a world of evil”, that “corrupts the whole person”. How true these words are! Have you ever been the subject of gossip that has ruined your life? In James 3:5, James writes that the tongue is a small part of the body but "it makes great boasts". We do not realize that this small part of our body can make a heap of difference, especially when it involves talking about someone behind their back.

Everyone can be affected by gossip in so many ways. In verse 10 it says that out of the “same mouth” we praise God and call him LORD. How can these two opposites live in the same place? We must recognize that we use our mouths to praise and honour and glorify God. We must also recognize that gossip angers God.

Before we open our mouths to speak about anyone else, we must always ask ourselves two questions: Is what we are going to say true? And is what we are going to say edifying? For some reason, good news doesn't spread as quickly as bad news. But one thing is certain: Gossip and talking about others behind their backs angers God.”

PUT GOD FIRST

In everything you do, put God first, and He will direct you and crown your efforts with success.

- This scripture speaks to us about our priorities.

- If we will put God first in our lives there are rewards.
- This is a key to living a successful life.
- Give Him first place in your life today!

PRAYER: Lord, I give You the place of priority in my life right now. Help me to realise that apart from You I can do nothing! Amen.

NOT TOO BIG FOR GOD

A young man was at the end of his rope. Seeing no way out, he dropped to his knees in prayer. "Lord, I can't go on," he said, "I have too heavy of a cross to bear." The Lord replied, "My son, if you can't bear its weight, just place your cross inside this room. Then, open that other door and pick out any cross you wish."

The man was filled with relief and said, "Thank you, Lord," and he did as he was told. Upon entering the other door, he saw many crosses, some so large the tops were not visible. Then, he spotted a tiny cross leaning against a far wall. "I'd like that one, Lord," he whispered.

And the Lord replied, "My son, that is the cross you just brought in." When life's problems seem overwhelming, it helps to look around and see what other people are coping with. You may consider yourself far more fortunate than you imagined.

SNIPETS OF GLOBAL YOUTH DAY

THE QUARTER

Several years ago a preacher moved to Houston, Texas.

Some weeks after he arrived, he had occasion to ride the bus from his home to the downtown area. When he sat down, he discovered that the driver had accidentally given him a quarter too much change.

As he considered what to do, he thought to himself, you better give the quarter back. It would be wrong to keep it. Then he thought, "Oh, forget it, it's only a quarter. Who would worry about this little amount?

Anyway the bus company already gets too much fare; they will never miss it. Accept it as a gift from God and keep quiet."

When his stop came, he paused momentarily at the door, then he handed the quarter to the driver and said, "Here, you gave me too much change."

The driver with a smile, replied, "Aren't you the new preacher in town? I have been thinking lately about going to worship somewhere. I just wanted to see what you would do if I gave you too much change."

When my friend stepped off the bus, he literally grabbed the nearest light pole, and held on, and said, "O God, I almost sold your Son for a quarter."

Our lives are the only Bible some people will ever read.

Fuzzy Sabbath Logic [Matthew 12]

Matthew 12.9 Going on from that place, he went into their synagogue, 10 and a man with a shriveled hand was there. Looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, they asked him, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"

...
14 But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus.

Running To Church

A little girl, dressed in her Sunday best, was running as fast as she could, trying not to be late for Bible class. As she ran she prayed, 'Dear Lord, please don't let me be late! Dear Lord, please don't let me be late!' While she was running and praying, she tripped on a curb and fell, getting her clothes dirty and tearing her dress. She got up, brushed herself off, and started running again!
